

Development Geographies Specialty Group (DGSG)

2012 DGSG Pre-Conference

Thursday, February 23
5PM – 8PM

Bar Basso ~ Basso56 Italian Restaurant
235 / 234 W 56th St, New York, NY 10019

7 “Pleas to Policymakers” followed by Open Discussion

5PM – 5:15PM ~ Bar Basso, 235 W 56th St

Welcome by Jeff Bury (UC Santa Cruz) and Daniel Esser (American U)

5:15PM – 6:30PM ~ Bar Basso, 235 W 56th St

Wendy Wolford, Cornell University

Food not bombs: distribute land, let cattle roam and plant defensively

Björn Surborg, Trinity College Dublin

Inequality and high growth: reconsidering the role for the state

Rie Makita, Rikkyo University

How to use Fair Trade certification for plantation workers: lessons from a tea estate in India

Ujjaini Das, University of Georgia

Rethinking the role of India’s developmental state in the management of electronic waste

Mark Graham, University of Oxford

Uneven geographies of knowledge: the Internet and the need for broader participation

Eric Carter, Grinnell College

We should use DDT for malaria control

Katharine McKinnon, Macquarie University

Practicing the politics of development

6:30PM – 8PM ~ Basso56, 234 W 56th St

Open discussion over dinner (self-pay)

All welcome
No conference fee

DGSG members receive a $10 discount
toward their food bill